

University Articulation Arrangements

University of Notre Dame

Articulation arrangements with the University of Notre Dame, Sydney for entry into the Bachelor of Commerce and Bachelor of Marketing and Public Relations Degree Programs.

Students who have completed the Advanced Diploma of Hospitality and the Advanced Diploma of Events may be eligible for advanced standing in the following units:

BS105 Business Communication	25 credit points
BS110 Accounting	25 credit points
BS122 Principles of Marketing	25 credit points
BS240 Business Law	25 credit points
BS390 Business Internship	25 credit points
BS273 Principles of Human Resource Management	25 credit points
BS100 Economics	25 credit points
BS200 Events Management	25 credit points
4 General Electives	100 credit points
Total	300 credit points

Please see below for relevant course links:

Bachelor of Commerce	https://www.nd.edu.au/sydney/courses/bocommerce.shtml
Bachelor of Marketing and Public Relations	http://www.nd.edu.au/sydney/courses/bocmarketingpr.shtml

Process: Apply directly to University of Notre Dame Admissions sydney.admissions@nd.edu.au

Once the paperwork is passed onto the School of Business by Admissions they will finalise the credit arrangements directly with the potential student.

University of Technology Sydney (UTS)

Articulation with UTS into Bachelor of Management with a major in Tourism or Events

<http://handbook.uts.edu.au/courses/c10342.html>

Check details on web site above for course details and for applications process contact the UTS Business School.

The Hotel School, Southern Cross University

Articulation with The Hotel School, Sydney, Southern Cross University for entry into the Bachelor of Business in Hotel Management

Under this arrangement, a student who has completed the Advanced Diploma of Hospitality and/or the Advanced Diploma of Events is guaranteed 1.5 years of credit towards the Bachelor of Business in Hotel Management (<http://sydney.hotelschool.scu.edu.au/degrees/bachelor-business-hotel-management>).

This is equivalent to 144 credit points of the 288 total credit points required for completion of the Degree.

Process: Apply directly through Admissions at the Hotel School Admissions & Administration Manager hotelschool@scu.edu.au

Oxford Brookes University, UK

Articulation with Oxford Brookes Department of Hospitality, Leisure and Tourism Management for entry into the Bachelor in Hotel and Restaurant Management or Bachelor in International Hospitality Management.

Currently under review but is expected to grant at least 1.5 years credit for these programs to students who have completed both Advanced Diplomas at Kenvale.

Process: Apply directly to Oxford Brookes, Department of Hospitality, Leisure and Tourism Management at <http://hospitality.brookes.ac.uk/>. This process may take longer as articulation arrangements are currently being reviewed by Ms. Angela Maher, UG Programme Director.