

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL) - APPLICATION FORM

Introduction

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is an evidence-based, equitable, and transparent process that assesses prior learning and/or experience, resulting in course credit, which exempts a student from enrolment in a particular subject. The College recognises the value of prior learning and experience. All students who attend the College are entitled to apply for RPL for the course in which they are enrolled. All applications will be assessed equitably and fairly by the College. The application process is detailed in 1-01-003 Pathways Policy.

Process of RPL

The College has identified two main streams of applications for RPL; where an applicant has:

- a) Undertaken previous formal study; or
- b) Extensive work experience

a) Previous formal study

Name of Institution where qualification was achieved
Name of Qualification achieved (Dated)
Units of Competency achieved (or provide transcript)
I have provided the following evidence: a. transcript/results (an explanation of grades must be attached) b. detailed subject outlines specifying subject content, assessment and duration (i.e. total number of hours of the course) c. statement of attainment (if applicable), and d. Certificate/award (if applicable).
Where qualifications documentation is in a language other than English, applicants are required to have the qualifications documentation translated into English using the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI). The College is not responsible for any costs associated with the translation of qualifications documentation.

b) Work Experience

Applicants who possess at least 5 consecutive years full time, or equivalent, work experience in a relevant field, which satisfies the learning outcomes for a subject they are enrolled in, may be eligible for a subject exemption. Applications for RPL based on extensive work experience must be evidence-based. Accordingly, all applications for RPL will result in an assessment to determine the applicant's competency level for the subject.
