Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) First introduced in 1995, it is the national policy for regulated qualifications in Australian education and training. It incorporates the qualifications from each education and training sector into a single comprehensive national qualifications framework. In 2011, under the leadership of the AQF Council, the AQF was revised to ensure that qualification outcomes remain relevant and nationally consistent, continue to support flexible qualifications linkages and pathways and enable national and international portability and comparability of qualifications. The latest version of the AQF framework was published in January 2013.

Australian Quality Training Framework (AQTF) The national set of standards which assures nationally consistent, high-quality training and assessment services for the clients of Australia's vocational education and training (VET) system. Initially established in 2001 for implementation in 2002, it is approved by the Ministerial Council for Tertiary Education and Employment (MCTEE), which includes all Ministers for VET in Australia.

Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) The national regulator for Australia's vocational education and training (VET) sector. ASQA regulates courses and training providers to ensure nationally approved quality standards are met.

Australian Student Tuition Assurance Scheme (ASTAS) ASTAS ensures that any Australian student displaced from a course, due to an RTO's inability to continue the course, is relocated efficiently and with minimal disruption to a comparable course with another member or approved provider.

The scheme provided members with a low-cost solution to fee protection legislation. The scheme closes in 2020.

Census Date The date identified on the 4-03-005 Subject Fee Schedules that signifies what trimester the subject falls within. Used for reporting to the government for compliance and VET Student Loan purposes.

The College Kenvale College of Hospitality, Cookery and Events.

education sector. TEQSA registers and evaluates the performance of higher education providers against the Higher Education Standards Framework.

The Tuition Protection Service (TPS)

The Tuition Protection Service (TPS) is an initiative of the Australian Government to assist international students and certain domestic students whose education providers are unable to fully deliver their course of study. The TPS ensures that these students are able to either:

Unit of Competency (UoC) A single component of a qualification, or a stand-alone unit, that has been accredited by the same process as for a whole AQF qualification. (AQF, 2013).

Unit of Study (UoS) A unit of study is a term used by our student management system to refer to subjects offered in our course curriculum. 3. Scope

3.1 Aim

This policy aims to articulate the obligations of the College and restrictions around payment of fees and any refund of tuition fees.

Fee refunds ensure a fair and equitable payment process for students given there are circumstances where it is reasonable and required for the College to refund tuition fees to students.

3.2 Scope

This policy covers information specific to the payment of and refund of tuition fees.

This policy does not apply to fee schedules or financial policies regarding the construct of fees.

This policy does not detail the procedures associated with fees and fee refunds. Specific refund information for international students can be found in 12-03-011 International Students Refund Information (Policy).

Specific refund information for students eligible to take up VET Student Loan can be found in 4-01-010 VET Student Loan Tuition Fee, Charges and Refund Policy,

This policy aligns with the information stated in the letter of offer received by both international and domestic students or stated on the website Policies & Forms - Kenvale College

4. Fees

4.1 Fee Schedule

Fees for domestic students are outlined in the 4-03-005 Subject Fee Schedule, which is updated annually and forms part of compliance obligations.

The 4-03-005 Subject Fee Schedule must be published on the College website in order for applicants to make an informed decision about applying to study at the College. This is a compliance requirement.

4.2 International student fees are published on the website International Student Information Sydney | Kenvale College

4.3 Informing Students and Acknowledgements

It is a compliance requirement that the College inform students fully of this policy and seek their acknowledgement. This must be done prior to enrolment using the letters of offer.

The acknowledgement signed by the student must contain the following information, as directed by the National Code 2018 (Standard 3.4.5):

“This written agreement, and the right to make complaints and seek appeals of decisions and action under various processes, does not affect the rights of the student to take action under the Australian Consumer Law if the Australian Consumer Law applies”

The National Code 2018 stipulates a number of requirements for the acknowledgement under Standard 3.

5. Fee Payments

5.1 Timeframes for Payment of Fees

All fees must be paid by the student prior to the commencement of classes in each trimester. As stipulated by the ESOS National Code (Standard 3, 3.1), the College must not accept payment of fees prior to the student entering into a written agreement with the College.

5.2 Late Payment of Fees

Where fees are not paid in full by the Administration Date, the College reserves the right to deny the student access to electronic resources and e-mails.

Any outstanding fees by the end of the student life cycle will result in the student being denied their qualification/ testamur.

5.3 For information regarding additional fees, please refer to International Students Fees - Kenvale College

5.4 Methods of payment

Annual tuition fees are payable on a per trimester or instalment basis from the date of acceptance of offer.

For specific details regarding options for payment of fees, please refer to the letters of offers sent to the students as well as the 1-03-001 Student Handbook.

6. Fee Refunds

6.1 Reasons for Refunds

There are a number of reasons why a student would require a refund from the College of tuition fees paid, such as:

- 6.1.1 The College is unable to deliver the student's course in full, and
- 6.1.2 A student decides to defer or withdraw from their course.

Students are ineligible for a refund and must not receive a refund where:

- 6.1.3 Notification of deferment or withdrawal is received after the Census Date.
- 6.1.4 The student has accepted enrolment into an alternative course.
- 6.1.5 For international students, where:
 - i. their visas were cancelled due to breaching the conditions of the visa; or
 - ii. they had been refused visas due to fraud or having provided fraudulent documents to Kenvale College; or
 - iii. they arrived to Australia after the course start date.

Students have the right to appeal against the College's decision following the 10-01-021 Complaints and Appeals Policy (Students). For more details please refer to Kenvale's website <https://kenvale.edu.au/study-with-us/domestic-students/complaints-appeals/>.

6.2 Enrolment in an Alternative Course

Where the College is unable to deliver the student's course in full, the student may be offered enrolment in an alternative course at no extra cost to the student. All excess costs are covered by the Tuition Protection Scheme (TPS).

Enrolment in an alternative course must not be done in conjunction with a refund of fees, but as an alternative to a refund of fees.

Students will first be attempted to be placed in an alternative course. A refund of fees will only be given if placement in an alternative course is not possible.

Where a student accepts placement in an alternative course, they must sign 4-03-002 Alternative Course Agreement.

6.3 Payment of Fee Refunds

Where the College is unable to deliver the student's course in full, the tuition fees paid to the date of cessation of the course must be paid within two (2) weeks of the date on which the course ceased to be provided.

Students who withdraw must be paid a full refund within 20 working days of notification of withdrawal; however, notification of deferment or withdrawal must be received prior to the Census Date.

Refunds will be paid into the account nominated in the refund form.

Where a student has withdrawn from a course and requires a refund, they must meet all requirements, with reference to 4-01-010 VET Student Loans Tuition Fee, Charges and Refund Policy prior to the Finance Department processing their refund.

6.4 Student Tuition Assurance Schemes

The Tuition Protection Service (TPS) is an initiative of the Australian Government to assist international students and eligible domestic students accessing a VET Student Loan (VSL), FEE-HELP or HECS-HELP (HELP) loan, whose education providers are unable to fully deliver their course of study. The TPS ensures that these students are able to either:

- complete their studies in another course or with another education provider or
- receive a refund of their unspent tuition fees (international students) or a re-credit of their loan for open units of study (VSL and HELP).

6.4.1 Tuition Protection Arrangements for VET Student Loans (VSL) Students

'Tuition protection' refers to the protections and assistance available to support VSL students in the event their private education provider defaults (ceases delivering or does not commence a course).

The TPS assists VSL students affected by a provider default to:

- continue their studies with a replacement provider in an equivalent or similar course; or
- if a suitable replacement course is not available, receive a loan re-credit for parts of the course they were unable to complete because of the provider's default.

6.4.2 Summary of the TPS

The Tuition Protection Service (TPS) assists international students whose education providers are unable to fully deliver their course of study. The TPS ensures that international students are able to either:

- complete their studies in another course or with another education provider or
- receive a refund of their unspent tuition fees.
