- 4.3 Any student has the right to make a complaint and if they are not satisfied with the decision that has been made and they have reasonable grounds, they can appeal the outcome.
- 4.4 All students are encouraged to resolve their complaint informally as the first step. However, should the student deem that informal resolution is not possible, appropriate nor satisfactory, they may submit a formal complaint using 10-03-008 Student Complaints and Appeals Form. - 4.7 All formal complaints and appeals will be acted and decided on within 10 working days of receiving the written complaint or appeal. The College will keep a written copy of the complaint, process and outcome in the student's personal file.
- 4.8 All complaints and feedback will be reviewed as part of the continuous improvement processes.

These steps will be explained as follows:

Should there be an appeal regarding other assessment outcomes, it is the student's responsibility to produce the evidence necessary to review individual assessments.

If students consider that their final grades received in any subject is not correct, they must appeal in writing for a revision of the mark, within 14 days of the College notifying the student of the grade. After that time, no appeals will be considered.

5.3 Request for "Special Consideration"

Special Consideration is a process that affords equal opportunity to students, including enrolled students, and non-award students who have experienced circumstances that adversely impact their ability to complete a single assessment task.

Students can only apply for leave if there are compelling and compassionate reasons to do so upon providing evidence and supporting documents in order to support those reason(s).

The Managing Director (or representative) will acknowledge the complaint within 3 days, and processing of the complaint will commence.

5.5 Request for “RPL” Recognition of Prior Learning

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is an evidence-based, equitable, and transparent process that assesses prior learning and/or experience, resulting in course credit, which exempts a student from enrolment in a particular subject.

The College recognises the value of prior learning and experience. All students who attend the College are entitled to apply for RPL for the course in which they are enrolled using the 1-03-004 Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) Application Form. All students who make a complaint under this Policy, and are not satisfied with the outcome, have a right to apply for an appeal.

The notice of appeal must be lodged within 20 business days of the day that the student or eligible person was sent the decision.

The Appeal can be lodged by completing and submitting a new Complaints and Appeals Form. The form with any material supporting should be sent by email to studentcomplaints@kenvale.edu.au.

Academic Appeals will be referred to the Chair of the Academic Board and Non-Academic Appeals will be referred to Kenvale College Finance Audit & Risk Committee (FARC), who will determine if due process has been followed when determining the outcome of the Appeal. Due to the sitting schedule of the FARC, these will usually be determined out of session.

The outcome of the appeal process will be informed and implemented, as follows:

Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015
Standard 1	"The RTO's training and assessment strategies and practices are responsive to industry and learner needs and meet the requirements of training packages and VET accredited courses To be compliant with Standard 1 the RTO must meet the following: 1.1. The RTO's training and assessment strategies and practices, including the amount of training they provide, are consistent with the requirements of training packages and VET accredited courses and enable each learner to meet the requirements for each unit of competency or module in which they are enrolled. 1.2. For the purposes of Clause 1.1, the RTO determines the amount of training they provide to each learner with regard to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) the existing skills, knowledge and the experience of the learner; b) the mode of delivery; and c) where a full qualification is not being delivered, the number of units and/or modules being delivered as a proportion of the full qualification. 1.3. The RTO has, for all of its scope of registration, and consistent with its training and assessment strategies, sufficient: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) trainers and assessors to deliver the training and assessment; b) educational and support services to meet the needs of the learner cohort/s undertaking the training and assessment; c) learning resources to enable learners to meet the requirements for each unit of competency, and which are accessible to the learner regardless of location or mode of delivery; and d) facilities, whether physical or virtual, and equipment to accommodate and support the number of learners undertaking the training and assessment. 1.4. The RTO meets all requirements specified in the relevant training package or VET accredited course. Industry relevance 1.5. The RTO's training and assessment practices are relevant to the needs of industry and informed by industry engagement. 1.6. The RTO determines the support needs of individual learners and provides access to the educational and support services necessary for the individual learner to meet the requirements of the training product as specified in training packages or VET accredited courses. Assessment 1.8. The RTO implements an assessment system that ensures that assessment (including recognition of prior learning):

a) complies with the assessment requirements of the relevant training package or VET accredited course; and

b) is conducted in accordance with the Principles of Assessment contained in Table 1.8-1 and the Rules of Evidence contained in Table 1.8-2.

1.9. The RTO implements a plan for ongoing systematic validation of assessment practices and judgements that includes for each training product on the RTO's scope of registration:

a) when assessment validation will occur;

b) which training products will be the focus of the validation;

c) who will lead and participate in validation activities; and

d) how the outcomes of these activities will be documented and acted upon.

1.10. For the purposes of Clause 1.9, each training product is validated at least once every five years, with at least 50% of products validated within the first three years of each five year cycle, taking into account the relative risks of all of the training products on the RTO's scope of registration, including those risks identified by the VET Regulator.

1.11. For the purposes of Clause 1.9, systematic validation of an RTO's assessment practices and judgements is undertaken by one or more persons who are not directly involved in the particular instance of delivery and assessment of the training product being validated, and who collectively have:

a) vocational competencies and current industry skills relevant to the assessment being validated;

b) current knowledge and skills in vocational teaching and learning; and

c) the training and assessment qualification or assessor skill set referred to in Item 1 or 3 of Schedule 1.

Industry experts may be involved in validation to ensure there is the combination of expertise set out in (a) to (c) above.

1.12. The RTO offers recognition of prior learning to individual learners.

Trainers and assessors

1.13. In addition to the requirements specified in Clause 1.14 and Clause 1.15, the RTO's training and assessment is delivered only by persons who have:

All teachers and supervisors have opportunities to review feedback on their teaching and research supervision and are supported in enhancing these activities. 7. The results of regular interim monitoring, comprehensive reviews, external referencing and student feedback are used to mitigate future risks to the quality of the education provided and to guide and evaluate improvements, including the use of data on student progress and success to inform admission criteria and approaches to course design, teaching, supervision, learning and academic support.
